

COMPASS for kids
formerly Parenting Resource Associates

SPECIAL EVENT

THE WORLD OF DIFFERENCE

Understanding and Appreciating Diversity

featuring Marlies Zammuto

"Diversity exists when two or more people see themselves as different from one another."

Marlies has been an educator of infants through elders for more than 35 years, developing innovative models of training and support to enhance the work of parents and professionals.

- Explore and reflect on how to value, manage and celebrate diversity
- Gain insights into your individual identity and unique diversity and apply these to your work with children and families
- Learn strategies to help you make a "world of difference" and empower children of many cultures, ethnicities, abilities and races

Saturday, November 14, 2009
9:00 am - 3:00 pm
First Steps, North Shore ARC
6 Southside Road, Danvers, MA

Pre-registration is required
Fee: $80 (includes light lunch)
Register online at:
www.compassforkids.org

Also offered on Saturday, April 10, 2010
at our Marlborough location.

Can't make it to one of these sessions? Contact us to find out how customized training can come directly to you!

For more information, contact:
Nancy Toso, MEd.
Director of Training and Program Development
781-862-4446 x208—nancytoso@parentingresource.org