

COMPASS for kids

formerly Parenting Resource Associates

is very pleased to present a

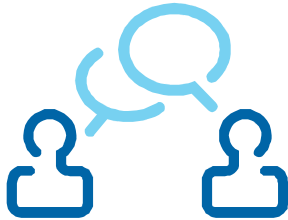

SPECIAL SERIES

Communicating Effectively: Is Anyone Listening?

with Marlies Zammuto

Effective listening is a key factor in effective communication.

Learn about and practice the skills used in listening with intention.

- Master listening strategies for content, meaning, clarity, understanding and connection
- Examine issues involved in cross-cultural communication
- Learn when to talk and when to be silent in conversation
- Communicate your messages more clearly

An educator of infants through elders for more than thirty five years, Marlies has conceptualized, developed and implemented a variety of innovative education and support models to enhance the work of parents and professionals.

To register and for a complete list of workshops and locations visit:

www.compassforkids.org

Mondays, March 15 & 22, 2010

7:00–9:00 pm

Temple Isaiah

55 Lincoln Street

Lexington, MA

Fee: $50

Register online:

www.compassforkids.org

For more information or to bring this program to your site, contact:

Nancy Toso, MEd.

Director of Training and Program Development

781-862-4446 x208 nancytoso@parentingresource.org