

Special Workshop for Infant Educators: The Special Needs of Parents of Infants

Establishing trusting relationships with parents will help produce a positive, stable environment to support infants' optimal development.

Learn and discover how to:

- share developmental information in a non-judgmental way
- communicate with parents about sensitive issues
- approach discussions with an open-minded attitude
- partner with parents when there is a difference in caretaking philosophy

Monday, April 12, 2010 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.
Cambridge Family YMCA
820 Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge, MA

To register and for a complete list of workshops and locations visit: www.compassforkids.org

For more information or to bring this program to your site, contact:

Nancy Toso, MEd.
Director of Training and Program Development
781-862-4446 x208 nancytoso@compassforkids.org