Understanding and Handling Parent-Teacher Conflicts A Two-Part Series

Thursdays, March 4 & April 8, 2010

Early childhood and school-age educators generally focus on the children in their programs, and realize that healthy parent/teacher partnerships support their ability to be successful in nurturing the “whole child.” However, teachers often face tensions around communicating sensitive issues or resolving conflicts with parents.

- Ⓢ Examine the dynamics of parent/teacher conflicts.
- Ⓢ Consider how our communication styles impact interactions.
- Ⓢ Learn and practice effective communication and conflict resolution techniques.
- Ⓢ Share experiences.
