7:00—9:00 p.m.

Fee: $25

SENSORY INTEGRATION: how children take in, process and respond to sensory input

- Examine the environmental considerations that teachers must take for children who respond differently to sensory input.
- Explore how to create and adapt sensory experiences that promote learning while respecting each child's unique sensory integration process.
- Discover easy, inexpensive and engaging activities that foster a child's ability to stay calm and enjoy learning!
